Contents of Volume 29 (1–6)

Volume 29 Number 1 Jan/Feb 1988

3 Colour and chromism of conjugated polymers
D. N. Batchelder

33 Physics on parallel computers
Part 2: applications
K. C. Bowler and R. D. Kenway

57 Photoelectric effect under strong irradiation
P. Agostini and G. Petite

Essay reviews

79 Light from the depths of time
R. J. Tayler

83 Unravelling superstrings
D. Olive

87 Book reviews

99 Books received

Volume 29 Number 2 Mar/April 1988

105 Light forces put a handle on the atom:
To cool and trap atoms by laser light
S. Stenholm

125 Multiphoton processes in molecular gases
M. N. R. Ashfold and J. D. Prince

159 Terrestrial searches for new stable particles
P. F. Smith

Essay review

187 Nuclear Physics
P. E. Hodgson

193 Book reviews

229 Books received

Volume 29 Number 3 May/June 1988

235 Optical processes in tunable transition-metal-ion lasers
B. Henderson and G. F. Imbusch

273 Architecture of gelatin gels
M. Djabourov

299 Squeezing the quantum fluctuations of light
G. Leuchs

315 Either 'and' or 'or' but not both
I. J. R. Aitchison

321 Book reviews

335 Books received

Volume 29 Number 4 July/Aug 1988

341 Dynamical instabilities and chaos in lasers
R. G. Harrison

373 Dark matter in the universe: where, what, and why?
V. Trimble

393 The invincible ignorance of science
A. B. Pippard

Essay reviews

407 Quantum chromodynamics
C. H. Llewellyn Smith

411 Physics at surfaces
A. D. Yoffe

415 Book reviews

429 Books received

Volume 29 Number 5 Sept/Oct 1988

435 The optics of animal eyes
M. F. Land

457 Multistep processes in nuclear reactions
P. E. Hodgson

477 Quantum standards for electrical units
A. Hartland

499 Path integrals and condensed matter physics
R. F. Bishop

503 Book reviews

523 Books received

Volume 29 Number 6 Nov/Dec 1988

527 Recent developments in the physics of liquid crystals
S. Chandrasekhar

559 Ionic reactions in atmospheric, interstellar and laboratory plasmas
N. G. Adams and D. Smith

579 Entangled polymers
L. Léger and J. L. Viovy

Essay reviews

597 An anthropic cosmogeny?
Dr J. Pickering

601 Statistical mechanics need not be dull
Dr G. Barton
